Cocktails

We have taken some of the best and most popular cocktails from around the world. This list is by no means exhaustive and there are many variations to choose from, so have a chat with your friendly bartender and pick a drink that's right for you.

Martini £7.95

The classic of all classic cocktails. Bombay Sapphire gin or Grey Goose vodka, shaken or stirred with dozens of variations

Although this cocktail dates back to the late 19th century, we give the creators credit to the bartender Martini di' Arma di Taggia from the Knickerbocker hotel in New York in 1912

Cosmopolitan £7.95

Grey Goose Le Citron vodka, Cointreau and cranberry shaken with lime

Created in 1975 by Neal Murray at the Cork and Cleaver steakhouse in Minneapolis and popularised by the TV programme 'Sex in the City'

Mojito £7.95

Bacardi Superior, lime juice, mint leaves and sugar syrup

This cocktail gained international recognition in the 1940's when numerous stars that included Bridget Bardot and Nat King Cole travelled to Havana and went to the famous La Bodequita del Medio bar

Margarita £7.95

Tequila, Triple Sec and sweet & sour mix

Popularised by a recipe in the 1953 December edition of Esquire magazine with their 'cocktail of the month' feature and then immortalised by the TV programme 'Friends'

Daiquiri £7.95

Bacardi, sugar and lime, frozen or straight up, it's up to you

The original Cuban cocktail export arguably created in it's present form at La Floridita in Havana, made famous by Ernest Hemmingway

Singapore Sling £7.95

Hendricks gin, cherry brandy, Cointreau, Benedictine, sours, pineapple and Grenadine

One of the worlds most famous cocktails. It was created in 1915 by Ngiam Tong Boon, the bartender at the long bar in Raffles Hotel. A perfect drink to cool you down on a hot summers day

Caiprinha £7.95

Cachaca, fresh lime juice and sugar

Pronounced kai-pee-reen-yah. This is the national cocktail of Brazil using their main export spirit 'Cachaca'. Or you can add the fruit of your choice and turn it into a 'Batida'

Mechu Lemon Drop £7.95

Grey Goose Le Citron vodka, Grand Marnier and freshly squeezed lemon/orange juice

Created by our very own mixologists Adin Memetovic and Kieran Tronson, it has a little hint of Mechu in it

The Bellini £8.95

Prosecco, peach and raspberry puree

As close to the original recipe as possible, courtesy of Mr. Cipriani of Harry's bar in Venice, one of the worlds coolest bars

The Long Island Iced Tea £7.95

Russian Standard vodka, Bombay Sapphire gin, Bacardi, Tequila, Cointreau and coke

Long Island Iced Tea was first served in the late 1970s by Robert 'Rosebud' Buttu, a bartender at the Oak Beach Inn in the town of Babylon, Long Island, New York
